The Mission of the Vine & Branches Area Faith Community empowered by the Holy Spirit is to bear fruit that will last as Jesus commanded: by celebrating and proclaiming our Catholic faith as disciples of Jesus using our God-given gifts; by reaching out to and welcoming all people; and by centering our lives on the Eucharist, sacraments, scripture, service and the teaching of the Church.

Hello everyone!

This is Fr. Jeremy Kucera and I just wanted to take the time to introduce myself a bit since some of you have probably been wondering what this new priest is going to be like. I have to admit that it was quite a surprise to be asked by Bishop Zielinski to come to the Vine and Branches AFC. While I knew that there was a chance that I could be moving since I just finished nine years in the St. Isidore the Farmer AFC, I didn't know that Fr. Garrett was in the process of discerning a vocation with the Jesuits. He had been here such a short time that it never crossed my mind that this AFC would be in need of a new pastor. Well, I guess you were in need and I happily accepted the assignment.

I have been asked to tell you a little bit about myself. I am 46 years old and have been ordained for 19 years now. I grew up on a small dairy farm in Silver Lake, MN. Now I know some of you are probably wondering what kind of ethnic background that means since I was told at the nursing home Wednesday morning that this area is heavily populated with German descendants. For the first time in my priesthood I have been assigned to an area that should be kind of similar to where I grew up. Silver Lake was predominantly Polish and Bohemian when I was a child, and my mother's hometown of Winsted was predominantly German. If you do the math I am 25% Polish, 25% Bohemian and 50% German. I don't have a card in my wallet to prove it, but the mere fact that my family makes about 300 gallons of sauerkraut every year should be sufficient evidence (although I have been experimenting the last few years with increasingly spicier kraut from jalapenos to ghost peppers).

It didn't take long for everyone in my family to figure out that I was not meant to be a farmer, although I greatly appreciate the gift of being able to grow up on one. To our surprise, the priesthood wasn't exactly on anyone's radar either, including my own. It took the Lord allowing some pretty drastic events to unfold in my life to get my attention. When I was younger I was simply too self-absorbed and only wanted to play sports. While my family always went to mass and we had the privilege of going to Catholic schools from first grade through high school graduation, my faith was immature at best. It wasn't until I almost died as a freshman in high school and had my knee shredded at a basketball camp the following summer that things started to develop a bit in regards to the priesthood (although I wouldn't know it at the time).

While I spent the next year pondering a bit more deeply on the meaning of life and wondering why I didn't die, a friend of mine came up to me one day and asked me if I would like to go on a retreat with him and some other friends. My initial reaction was simply no. I told him I never liked how the youth group kids acted and how it sometimes felt like they were being overly energetic, but in an insincere fashion at times. He knew that was partly true as kids were simply trying to find their way through life, but he persisted. He continued the pursuit by saying how I would get out of the house for the weekend and that was intriguing as a break from parents and chores as a teenager is something everyone understands as we yearn for more and more freedom at that age. What sealed the deal is that he said there would be a bunch of real cute girls on the retreat. I thought about it for two or three seconds and said, "Sam, I want to go on retreat!" Needless to say, my motives were not for the Lord.

The funny thing is, God used all of this stuff to simply lure me into a moment where I would be removed from the hustle and bustle of the world. Once I found myself in an environment to be able to listen to God and be in a more receptive posture, Jesus made himself known to me in a deeper and more concrete way for the first time. It was then and there where I was able to learn of his love, forgiveness, mercy and compassion. God was exactly what my heart had been looking for my entire life, even though I didn't know it and I didn't realize that I was looking for him in worldly things.

It only took about five months after that initial encounter to come to a place of being able to receive the call to the priesthood. That is another story in and of itself, but for the time being I think that's about enough for now.

Again, I am happy to be here and am grateful for the call to serve you as your new pastor. I'm hoping to take this year to get to know you and to learn the lay of the land. I don't come with any big plans or ideas. Getting to know you is the first step. Then whatever I discover I will take to the Lord in prayer and ask Jesus what he would like for us. So you help me pray for that too, ok?

I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has welcomed me into our AFC and that has helped with the moving and cleaning of the rectory. You've been very hospitable and helpful. Thank you!

God's blessings,

Fr. Jeremy

 The Archangel
 St. Raphael, the Archangel,
 Great prince of the heavenly court, you are radiant with your gifts of wisdom and grace.
 You are a guide of those who journey, the consoler of the afflicted, and refuge of sinners.
 Because you are the "Healing of God," we pray you to heal the many weaknesses and ills of our body, mind, and soul, and to assist us in our needs and sufferings in this life.
 St. Raphael,
 As once you helped young Tobias, we ask you to guide and lead our youth, to serve Almighty God with their whole strength and to spend their lives gladly to serve the Church as priests, Brothers, and Sisters.
 Amen.

~St. Raphael School~

It is the mission of St. Raphael Catholic School to bring students to a deeper relationship with Jesus while providing excellent education.

S.M.A.R.T. Training: Last week, I attended a three day conference in Minneapolis about children, brain development, and learning readiness. The acronym S.M.A.R.T stands for Stimulating Maturity through Accelerated Readiness Training. This research-based strategy for helping students succeed was so much fun to learn about. The premise of the training was to take students through a variety of exercises in order to intentionally stimulate certain parts of their brain and sensory systems. Many gross motor activities help with balance and vision and therefore early reading readiness. Some of the best gross motor exercises for children to do in order to attain learning readiness are creeping (what we think of as crawling), the alligator crawl, hopscotch, balancing on a balance beam, and pencil rolls. The training also talked about certain basic vision exercises, auditory exercises, and fine motor exercises in order to stimulate optimal learning readiness. Mrs. Hovland attended one of these conferences last summer and has implemented some of these activities into her preschool program. I look forward to sharing these ideas with the rest of our staff, sending some of the other staff to a training, and implementing these ideas within our school programs.

Daycare Update: Our daycare is scheduled to open on September 11, 2023. Katie has been working very hard to set up the room and obtain the needed materials! She has also been busy connecting with families on our waiting list and securing enrollment for when we open. Thanks to Bev for all her work in ordering all the items needed! Greg has been working with contractors and vendors to finish up all the final building and maintenance things needed before opening such as adding extra outlets in the room and getting the sink working. I will update everyone when we have more to share!

Part-time Daycare Employee Needed: We are seeking a part-time daycare employee that will begin on September 11, 2023. I will share a job posting with more details on our school Facebook page very soon. Qualified applicants should be flexible, love working with children, and be willing to do the necessary trainings required. Prior experience in a daycare setting is not required, but experience with children is preferred. If you or someone you know is interested, please have them send a cover letter, two letters of recommendation and a personal resume to mrssteffl@straphaelpk-6.com.

School/Teacher Update: We are still seeking and wanting to hire a 4th grade teacher and a 5th grade teacher. Please encourage any educators you know to talk to me or apply. To apply- applicants should email a cover letter, two letters of recommendation and a personal resume to mrssteffl@straphaelpk-6.com. We still plan to move forward during the 2023-2024 school year with preschool through grade 6 plus our new daycare program.

Shoe Drive: So far, we have collected 650 pairs of shoes for our shoe drive! We need 2,500 pairs by August 7th! This helps us raise money for our school, reduces waste in landfills, and helps people in developing countries start their own business. If you have extra shoes that your children have outgrown or have some that you are not using, please bring them in! We have a collection box in the church gathering space.

Blessings,

Mrs. Beth Steffl

YOU CAN SUPPORT OUR KIDS

JUST BY DONATING YOUR SHOES

We are collecting shoes again! The drop box is located in the Gathering Space. We are accepting all gently worn, used and new shoes.

PULL TOGETHER.  Save your pop tabs and bring them into the Gathering Space and add them to our pop tab collection house. Once the house is full, we will make a delivery to Cash Heemeyer in Marshall so he can deliver them to the Ronald McDonald House.

 Help our environment & Choices Pregnancy Center, Redwood Falls ~ In an effort to raise money for Choices Pregnancy Center, Redwood Falls, we are asking that you please donate all empty/used Inkjet Cartridges. Cartridges should be placed in a Ziploc/plastic bag to prevent leakage and dropped off at church.

Parts of the Mass week 5:

The first main part of the Mass is called the Liturgy of the Word. What is liturgy? The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) 1069 tells us that the word “liturgy” means “the participation of the People of God (that’s us) in the work of God”. We are invited by Jesus to be a part of this “peek into heaven” that we call the Mass! Not to just sit there and half listen but to fully focus on the words, sing, pray and give ourselves to God.

Who’s word will we hear? The very Word of God to us! The lector lends God their voice as they read from scripture. Liturgy of the Word is so much more than us listening to a story. We are participating in the very Word of God!

The first reading is from the Old Testament except during the 8 weeks of Easter when the first reading is from the book of Acts of the Apostles. Why do we listen to the Old Testament? Because it prepares us for the New Testament fulfillment. For example, when you hear that it is the saving blood of the sacrificed lamb that saved the Israelites from the Egyptians so they can enter into the promised land from the Old Testament book of Exodus, you can better understand why Jesus is referred to as the Lamb of God whose saving blood is given to us in communion so that we can enter heaven! Listening to the Old Testament should comfort and encourage us because it shows us how God has loved his people.

After the first reading is the responsorial psalm. The book of Psalm is actually a song book!

The second reading is always from the New Testament. Most of these are the letters that were written to new churches to help guide the faithful in how to be good Christians, how to teach others about the faith and to encourage them to be strong, even when they are being persecuted. We still need this guidance, teaching and encouragement today.

After hearing the first and second readings we now have the “backstory and theme” to be prepared to hear the Gospel. The word Gospel means “Good News”, good news indeed!

~Mrs. Karen Reindl
