The Mission of the Vine & Branches Area Faith Community empowered by the Holy Spirit is to bear fruit that will last as Jesus commanded: by celebrating and proclaiming our Catholic faith as disciples of Jesus using our God-given gifts; by reaching out to and welcoming all people; and by centering our lives on the Eucharist, sacraments, scripture, service and the teaching of the Church.

Hello everyone,

Below I am sharing a little bit about the beginning of the Easter Vigil and its significance (shared from the Hallow website). I want to invite you to pray about coming to the Easter Vigil this year. It is a mass unlike any other that we celebrate. I will be attentive to your desires that it not be too long, but that it will also be celebrated with reverence befitting the occasion. Enjoy below:

Biblical Roots of The Easter Vigil

As with the entirety of Holy Week, we understand the Easter Vigil first from the Bible, which tells us of Jesus's final days, death and resurrection.

But the Easter Vigil celebrates the story of salvation unfolding throughout history, and the liturgy is inspired by both the Old and New Testaments.

"By most ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil for the Lord (Ex 12:42), in which, following the Gospel admonition (Lk 12:35-37), the faithful, carrying lighted lamps in their hands, should be like those looking for the Lord when he returns, so that at his coming he may find them awake and have them sit at his table." Roman Missal

The Vigil Begins: Easter Vigil Worship Place + Service of Light

On Good Friday, the altar is bare; the church sparsely decorated. Crosses and statues are covered. The next day, on Holy Saturday, there is no morning Mass before the Easter Vigil. The church remains empty, quiet and dark before the celebration of Christ's resurrection.

Throughout the day, we await Christ's imminent Resurrection, resting with Him in the darkness. As Pope Francis recently said,

"There are moments when life seems to be a sealed tomb: all is dark, and around us we see only sorrow and despair ... Jesus tells us that in these moments we are not alone. Precisely in these moments He comes closer than ever to restore life to us."

The Easter Vigil that night marks the first sign of Christ's light and resurrection.

After churchgoers have filed into the church, the Easter Vigil service begins at sunset with an invitation from the priest to walk from the dark church outside to begin the Service of Light.

A fire burns, dispelling the night's darkness, as the priest takes the Paschal Candle, carves a cross and other symbols into it, and lights the candle. With incense burning, the priest passes light from the candle to smaller candles held by everyone in attendance.

The light from Christ illuminates the dark worship space. It serves as a powerful symbol, as Christ is the Light of the World. As Christ's light enters the church, it can also enter our hearts.

As Pope Benedict XVI said, "Beginning with the resurrection, God's light spreads throughout the world and throughout history. This Light alone – Jesus Christ – is the true light, something more than the physical phenomenon of light.."

It's a symbol that perhaps those in the Middle Ages were better equipped to appreciate than we do, given that light and electricity are typically abundant for us.

The Exsultet

When the procession ends, and the candle settles on its resting place, the Exsultet, also known as Easter Proclamation, begins. It's a beautiful, rich hymn that celebrates the truly holy night with words such as those below:

This is the night
of which it is written:
The night shall be as bright as day,
dazzling is the night for me, and full of gladness.
The sanctifying power of this night
dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners,
drives out hatred, fosters concord, and brings down the mighty.
On this, your night of grace, O holy Father, accept this candle, a solemn offering,
the work of bees and of your servants' hands,
an evening sacrifice of praise,
this gift from your most holy Church.

The Exsultet gives a taste of the unique Scripture and song that take place as the Vigil unfolds.
God's blessings, Fr. Jeremy

by Matthew Kelly:

This week, forgive. We have all been hurt by others, we have all been betrayed in ways large or small, we have all been the victims of wrongful acts of injustice. Everybody needs to forgive somebody. Forgiveness is a supreme form of generosity. Set out along the road of forgiving someone who has wronged you and begin to explore how you need to forgive yourself too. Sometimes it is our inability to forgive ourselves for something completely unrelated that holds us back from forgiving other people.

The Way of the Cross is a popular devotion among Christians. It is a spiritual pilgrimage to the holy places of Jerusalem depicted in the scenes of Jesus' passion and death. A dramatic presentation of the Passion of Jesus the Christ will be presented in Shadow Theatre on Friday March 29th beginning at 8:00 pm at the Church of St. Joseph, Lamberton. Shadow theatre uses shadows, cast by live actors, onto a lighted screen. Sacred music will begin at 7:30. All are welcome!
