The Mission of the Vine & Branches Area Faith Community empowered by the Holy Spirit is to bear fruit that will last as Jesus commanded: by celebrating and proclaiming our Catholic faith as disciples of Jesus using our God-given gifts; by reaching out to and welcoming all people; and by centering our lives on the Eucharist, sacraments, scripture, service and the teaching of the Church.

A.M.D.G.

This time of year is nuts. The school year is steadily coming to its close, and with it the many rituals and ceremonies that usher in its conclusion. Graduations, receptions, baccalaureate services, and parties salute our graduates; exams, papers, last-ditch efforts for extra credit, and final deadlines unite them with their peers. There are performances in theatre and music; ball games, track and golf meets, and soccer games abound; and all of this is merely in regard to our students, who are at this point nearly haggard with the exertion of this “final push.” Then there are the rest of us (for I really doubt that any of our kids are reading this column): we are rushing off to all of these events while praying for the patience to stay focused in our work (despite the glowing warmth outside our windows beckoning us to slide into summer holiday). Our farmers and those who tend the land are antsy and anxious to—at last!—break ground and start the planting...all the while knowing that, in a few months time, we will find ourselves saying: “now is when we could use a little of that rain we had back in May...”

Yes, it is a crazy time of year. But I characteristically find it also a season of nostalgia. I look at our students and can't help but remark on how much they have changed since the start of the school year. I think back to the many sacraments and Masses that I've celebrate this year—Baptisms and First Communions, Confirmations and Weddings; funerals and obsequies for our beloved departed; Masses, at times plain and unadorned, else solemn and filled with singing and incense and grandeur. I think of all that has happened in our community, our parish, our school, and in the lives of so many of you, my friends and parishioners.

And then, the nostalgia of what has passed with sound and fury this year gives way to gratitude. We have been so greatly blessed in this year. There is no one among us who has not experienced trials and humiliations—what we commonly call, at the teaching of our Lord, the Cross. But even these Crosses are occasions for us to trust that the Lord provides—“take my yoke upon you and learn from me...for my yoke is easy, and my burden light”—and He does, giving us grace upon grace.

There is plenty of time for us to fret, and plenty of occasions for us to lose ourselves in our “busy lives” and in the chaos that will continue to unfurl for the next several weeks. But I hope that we can find space for gratitude: to give thanks not in some generic way, as though some inanimate force determining our lives has caused us to be really lucky. We are grateful to God who provides for us because He loves us. One of my great heroes, St. Ignatius of Loyola, insisted on the importance of gratitude: according to him, it is the fundamental virtue in the Christian life. He was so passionate about this, he even wrote: “It seems to me, in light of the divine Goodness, [...] that ingratitude is one of the things most worthy of detestation before our Creator and Lord [...], out of all the evil and sins which can be imagined. For it is the failure to recognize the good things, the graces, and the gifts received. As such, it is the cause, beginning, and origin of all evil and sins.”

Those are pretty strong words: but I think Father Ignatius is quite right. Only with gratitude do we come to recognize” the good things, the graces, and the gifts that we have received” from God. And when we are at last aware of these things, we are able to respond to God in faith and fidelity.

There is a lot going on these days: I invite you to give a close read to our bulletin this week to see all that is going on at our parish and school! Let's keep one another in our prayers as we close out this week and as we prepare for the week ahead. Keep our young people in your prayers, especially, as they wrap-up the academic year and dive into their much-coveted summer. God bless!

The Advocate

We know the feeling of falling down and being unable to lift ourselves back up. Often the Spirit works through others in our lives, individuals who lift us up in times of pain with their physical presence, healing voice, or compassionate hearts. The Spirit also works through us when those around us are troubled. When have you experienced the Holy Spirit as an Advocate? When have you been an Advocate, carrying the burdens of others?

Prayer: Come, Holy Spirit, and strengthen us with your grace in the midst of the challenges of daily life. May your presence be for us a balm, bringing relief to our frail and wounded hearts.

Blessing for Mother's Day

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you give life and care for your Church.

Bless these women, as we celebrate this day in their honor. May they be strengthened in their ongoing sacrifice and generosity of sharing their gift of motherhood each in their unique vocation as women.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them with a spirit of profound respect.

May the example of Mary, mother of Jesus, inspire them to live their vocation of motherhood as Christian women calling their children to faith.

Guide and protect them in challenging times and help them to continue to trust in you all the days of their life.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer to St. Raphael

The Archangel
St. Raphael, the Archangel, Great prince of the heavenly court, you are radiant with your gifts of wisdom and grace.
You are a guide of those who journey, the consoler of the afflicted, and refuge of sinners.
Because you are the “Healing of God,” we pray you to heal
the many weaknesses and ills of our body, mind, and soul, and to assist us in our needs and sufferings in this life.

St. Raphael,
As once you helped young Tobias, we ask you to guide and lead our youth, to serve Almighty God with their whole strength and to spend their lives gladly to serve the Church as priests, Brothers, and Sisters.
Amen.

The call can be for a death, for a sick person, for a special intention, or for a specific intention other than illness or death. The call should have the approval of a family member. It was absolutely unbelievable! Thank you to all who helped make costumes, applied makeup, fixed hair, took pictures, and supported our performances in any way. We have the BEST staff, parents, and volunteers. I loved working together with all of you to create a fun experience for our students and community. Thanks to the Pieschel Family Foundation for grant funds that made the performance possible. Thanks also to Redwood RAC, Sons of the American Legion, St. Raphael PTT, and other generous donors who funded our new sound system that was used for the first time during our performances of The Jungle Book Kids.

~Youth & Adult Faith Formation ~

Lifelong Faith Formation As the faith formation year has come to a close I feel so grateful!

Children + Youth + Adult

First always, to God for His guidance and strength when He stretches me outside of my comfort zone.

I want to thank Father Garrett for his support and willingness to listen to my ramblings of a new idea and encouraging me to implement them.

To Mrs. Beth Steffl for her trust and flexibility. She is an amazing fountain of encouragement and a great example of leadership!

Thank you to the 17 amazing catechists willing to volunteer each week to share the faith with their students. You are helping make saints!

I want to thank the parents for making sure that their children attended faith formation classes each and every week – what a year with last minute cancellations due to storms, thank you for being so understanding!

I want to thank the students for being respectful and participating in your learning. Remember, this is your faith! You need to build it!

I want to thank the teens who were willing to help where needed and got their paper work in – makes my job SO much easier. Your willingness to try new things is inspiring!

I also want to thank my family for their support. From driving two cars every week for me to get here early, to “volunteering” to help where ever I needed them to be and everything in between.

I think it has been a great year and I look forward to starting again on September 6.

~Mrs. Karen Reindl

Throughout this Holy Season of Easter, we will have the opportunity to receive Holy Communion from the Chalice during Mass.

When the Eucharist is offered under both forms—the Consecrated Host or the Chalice—one is never obliged to receive from the Chalice. However, if you choose not to receive from the Chalice, please make sure to reverence the Eucharistic Presence of Our Lord by bowing to the Chalice as you pass by after having received the Consecrated host. Thank you!
